Why we are collecting your information

We need to collect personal data from you in order process your application. We will make our decision based on the information you provide us with.

What happens if I do not want my information collected?

All data we ask for is mandatory to the process. The consequence of not providing your personal information is that we will not be able to assess your eligibility in which case we cannot process your request.

What information is being collected:

The information we are processing falls into the following categories of personal data:

Categories of personal data:

- Personal details
- Work details
- Narrative data

Legal basis for the processing

Before we process your data we need a legal basis for doing so. In this case, the basis for processing your personal data is that in order to make a decision, we have a contractual obligation to assess the nature of the outside employment and ensure that the performance of official duties shall not be impaired by an employee holding secondary employment.

These are covered under the Data Protection laws below

General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 [reference to Article 6.1(b)]

- It is necessary for the performance of a contract that you are a party to or that we are negotiating with you.

How we collect the information about you

We will collect data directly from you.

Who we share your data with

We will only share your data internally unless your external employment is with another Fire Rescue Service, in which case we will share your work contact details with the employer.

How long we hold your information for

We will hold your information for the duration of your employment, for up to 7 years following the end of your employment, and then permanently as part of the LFB's historical archive.

Automated decision making

The information we have collected will not be used to make any automated decisions about you
